New Business:

6. Read-A-Thon
Still going ahead in the spring. Think about how to give prizes given the current situation. Slideshow for teachers to show kids the prizes available. May have them on display from a distance; kids can't touch them. 3 to 4 weeks of reading, just need to pick the dates. School fundraiser. April?
 7. Teacher Appreciation- how to get students involved. Cards- compliments campaign, kids would make cards complimenting teachers. Say something nice about school staff. Use the paper tree and have kids post the compliments on the tree. Free lunches? Have to use a vendor that will individually package the lunches. Kelly would go and talk to the classes as she works in the school. Kids could do the activity while Kelly is there. Talk to Mrs. Krause about using part of her art period? Talk to teachers about taking 2 hours to complete the activity. Trevor needs the date to let staff know for a staff luncheon
 8. PAC Bylaw Meeting- set date? Doesn't have to be an official meeting. February 2nd.
 9. Ways for students to connect with one another- brainstorm ideas, covid-friendly ideas, come up with some ideas, at home activities that kids can do with families and then post pictures of activity. Virtual club? Details, how would it be done? What devices are they using? At home or at school? Showcase their talents. Set up times and dates to meet. A challenge would be nice- have a theme for it. Need to set up a system to vote.
